Answers to common questions about the Nile Horizon Bank mobile app and internet banking.

Transfers and Limits

Q: What are the daily transfer limits in the mobile app?

A: You can transfer up to EGP 100,000 per day between accounts at Nile Horizon Bank and up to EGP 50,000 per day to accounts at other banks.

Q: Is there a fee for transfers to other banks?

A: Instant transfers to other banks cost 0.1% of the amount, with a minimum of EGP 2 and a maximum of EGP 20. Transfers between Nile Horizon Bank accounts are free.

Login and Security

Q: How do I reset my password?

A: Choose 'Forgot password' on the login screen, enter the one-time password (OTP) sent to your registered mobile number, and verify your identity with your national ID or biometrics.

Q: How long is an OTP valid?

A: An OTP is valid for 3 minutes. You can request a new one after it expires.

Q: Why is my account locked?

A: Your digital access is locked after 5 failed login attempts. Call the hotline 19999 or visit a branch to unlock it.

Q: Will the bank ever ask for my OTP?

A: No. Never share your OTP, PIN, or password with anyone, including people who claim to be bank employees.

Devices and Cards

Q: How do I use the app on a new phone?

A: Log in on the new device and re-register it using an OTP and your national ID. The old device is deactivated automatically.

Q: How do I freeze my card?

A: Open the Cards section in the app, select the card, and tap 'Freeze'. The freeze takes effect immediately and can be reversed at any time.
